

Russell R. Wolter, 83

7-3-91

The funeral for Russell R. Wolter, 83, Groton was held June 28, 1991, at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton. The Reverend Anne Maldoon officiated.

Burial was in Groton Union Cemetery under the direction of Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel in Groton.

He died Tuesday, June 25, 1991, at St. Luke's Midland Regional Medical Center.

Russell R. Wolter was born November 30, 1907, to Henry and Lena (Hartwick) Wolter at Aberdeen. He graduated from Aberdeen Central High School in 1927.

He married Cora Hunstad July 9, 1938 at Aberdeen. They farmed in the Aberdeen area. They moved to a farm in the Groton area in 1944.

He was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Groton. He served on the Township Board and Township School Board.

Survivors include his wife of Groton; one son, Dale Wolter, Groton; two daughters, Mrs. Gene (Aloise) Brolin, Groton and Mrs. Anita (Kohrer), Bloomington, Minn.; two brothers, Earl Wolter, Nampa, Idaho, and Don Wolter, Frederick; three sisters, Mrs. George (Alice) Frandsen, Watertown, Mrs. Melvin (Val) Hunstad, Aberdeen and Mrs. Helen Fuller, Brookings, Ore.; and seven grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Casketbearers were Keith Baker, Thomas Lundell, Kervin and Randall Wolter, and David and Stephen Kohrer. The organist was Mrs. Douglas Doeden. The soloist was Gene Brolin. Brolin sang "In the Garden" and the congregation sang "Lift High the Cross," "How Great Thou Art" and "Praise to The Lord."

Ushers were Jerry and Warren Hunstad.